

Beach Looks for Bothersome Bellies and/or Big Busts

- Top Tips...
- * Shift or Empire Line clothing (think skim not cling)
 - * Crossover Swimwear (angles break up a belly, prints help to disguise)

- Quiz Time...
- * Is the lovely Leanne (in the beach dress) Warm or Cool?
 - * What about Jaqui in swimwear?

The answer: both are warm. The lilac colours are okay but they really glow in the warmer tones.

Cool girls - who wear silver

Beach Looks for Curvy Girls with great waists

- Top Tips...
- * Bigger busts need deep 'V' necklines
 - * Beachwear that defines your waist even just a little - look for darts or bias styles. You don't want tight when it's hot. If you must, then go for breathable fabric.

- Top Tips...
- * Yes! You can wear a Bikini! See how it shows off a waist brilliantly as does a Bandeau style

Beach Looks for Apples with small busts and bigger hips

- Top Tips...
- * Heap on the detail about your bust. It will create volume & balance out your wider hips.
 - * Hem lines must end below your widest part...your hips or well above.

- Top Tips...
- * A higher cut leg is so flattering.
 - * Avoid bylegs like the plague as they will look like a tight rubber band across your already wider hips making them look even bigger.
