

What to Pack for a Week Away and How to Wear It

Whether you're at the beach, sight-seeing, out for a spot of lunch or stepping out for dinner, we've got you covered. See our ideas of how to combine our pieces from Packing List #1 with a few staples from your wardrobe to make it happen...too easy!

Day 1:

You're making your way to your holiday destination and you are desperate to get into the holiday mood.

Transit

Beach

Dinner

*Palazzos are long pants with a wider leg. Perfect for hot summer days and nights.

Day 2:

If you're out to see what's on offer, wear what you did the night before, loosen it up a bit and you're away.

About

Dinner

Day 3:

Wear out what you did for dinner the night before – there is a bit more left in our clever 'Amanda' yet.

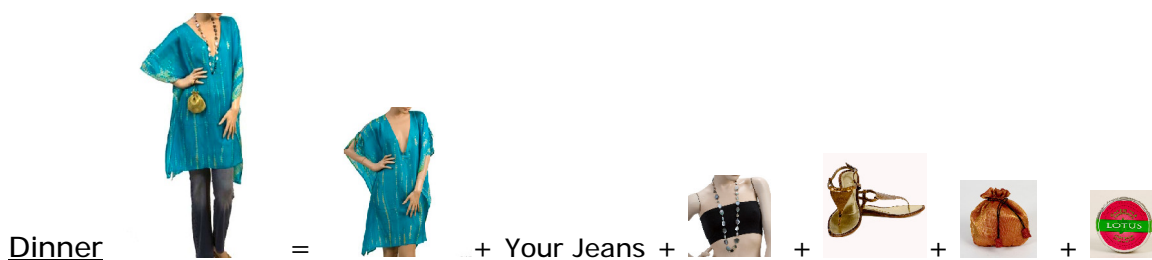

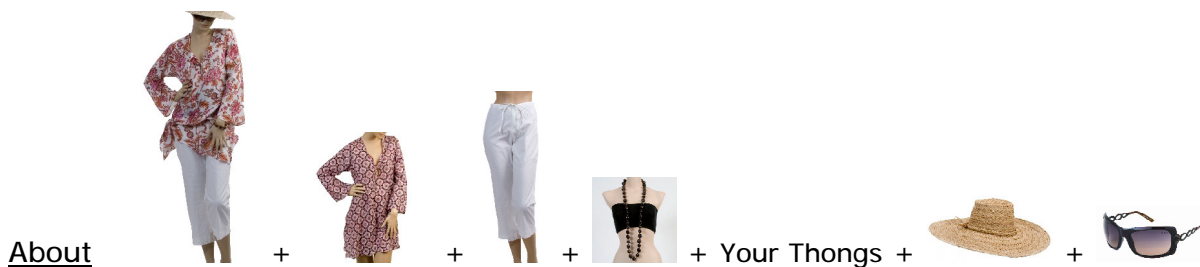

Change for dinner into our simple black cotton dress which can be dressed up so easily with our gorgeous accessories. Don't forget to shimmer in our body balm too – luscious after a day at the beach.

Day 4:

Put 'Amelia' back on from Day 1 and get a bit more mileage from her - create a great smart casual look (Amanda is pictured here in orange/pink but you get the idea – a perfect alternative to Amelia).

Simply elegant. Put on our divine Barbados silk kaftan to look and feel a million dollars, teamed with our free jewellery pouch as the perfect summer evening bag. Your jeans have never looked so good.

Day 5:

It's beach day so you can afford to 'finish off' Amanda by taking her to the beach. Amelia/Orange Amanda would work too.

Day 6:

Same trick of wearing out today what you did the night before.

*If you want a shorter more fitted look for our Barbados silk kaftan, simple belt around with your belt or use the belt from Casablanca and flounce it over. Its fine enough to handle it without looking bulky. Knotting it off to the side in front will work too. Silk is deceptively tough, don't be afraid to have a play with it.

Day 7:

Can you believe your week is over already! If you wanted to extend a few days more, all of our tops and Casablanca will dry in a snap if you want to give them a quick wash. The black cotton dress can be worn as a skirt! It would look great just with a t-shirt or tank.

Beach

Brunch

& Transit

Or simply wear Casablanca with out your jeans for a more relaxed exit, especially if travelling by car.

We hope our tips have been useful and inspiring.
Most importantly relax, you will look gorgeous.
Enjoy every precious moment.
